MYSTICISM OF EARTH:
AN IGNATIAN ECOLOGY
RETREAT
DATE: JULY 22-30 2013
COST: $765 CDN

When we experience Earth's beauty we enter into Mystery and are filled with awe and wonder. In Earth's exuberant diversity we sense the unity of the Divine.

Come and be nourished by God through the beauty of our farmland and its natural surroundings. Reflecting and praying on your relationship with the Earth, you will be encouraged to experience God's goodness and beauty.

These days will offer inspiration and nurture hope-filled living expressing the healing power of the Earth.

ON THE BRIDGE AT THE CHARDIN TRAIL

This guided silent retreat is facilitated by members of the Ecology Project Working Group including: James Profit, S.J., Cristina Vanin, Yvonne Prowse, Marianne Karsh, Gary Bowron, Diane Baltaz, John Geeza, Tarcia Gerwing, Barbara Peloso, Peter Peloso, and Don Webers.

Spiritual direction will be offered.

Loyola House is located at the Ignatius Jesuit Centre, just north of Guelph, Ontario on 240 hectares of beautiful farmland, with rolling hills, woods and wetlands—all of it accessible by trails to those who take part in our programs. We also have a swimming pool for your use. You are encouraged to enjoy our property. Bring that which is helpful for you to be with God and the Earth.
